

ETHICS

Policy and Society

IBM's Hidden Role in the Holocaust

Edwin Black

12 Noon - 2 p.m., Friday, February 8, 2013

The Miller Center for Contemporary Judaic Studies
105 Merrick Building, Coral Gables Campus

Edwin Black (<http://www.edwinblack.com>) is an award-winning, New York Times bestselling author of a number of important books and articles on genocide and hate, corporate criminality and corruption, governmental misconduct, academic fraud, philanthropic abuse, oil addiction and alternative energy. He is the author of IBM and the Holocaust, now in a recently Expanded Edition. According to one reviewer, "Black's case is simple and stunning: that IBM facilitated the identification and roundup of millions of Jews during the 12 years of the Third Reich." In this special presentation, Mr. Black will review the little-known historical facts – and the well-known and awful consequences – of this wartime collaboration.

Light refreshments will be served as of 11:30 a.m. To order a free sandwich, call (305) 284-6882 or email ccjs@miami.edu by 10 a.m. on February 1. Sandwiches will be reserved by name. No food or drink is permitted in the Miller Center auditorium.

"Ethics, Policy and Society" is an occasional series. For more information, email ethics@miami.edu.