

DIG BENEATH THE HEADLINES: How Can Teens Move Forward in Today's Turbulent World?

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 8 | 5 PM

Bethel United Methodist Church
5 Pitt Street, Charleston, SC 29401

How does social injustice and violence affect us?
Why do we care and what can we do?

A conversation for teens and with teens; refreshments served.

FREE & OPEN TO TEENS, GRADES 6-12

For more information contact Sandra Brett, sandrab@charlestonjcc.org or Garrison Pollock, youth@bethelcharleston.com

Presented by Edwin Black, a New York Times best-selling author and commentator on social justice and human rights issues. His books include IBM and the Holocaust, and War Against the Weak.

The Jewish Federation OF CHARLESTON, SC

